3.5 stars rounded up. We got the table under the bali hut by the lake on a cool winters day. The service was a little slow as they were quite busy and they kept forgetting the cutlery but the food was of a decent standard. My soup was severely under-seasoned but everyone else seems to enjoy their meals. The onion rings were good.

When the weather conditions are pleasant you can also eat outside, and into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Kingfishers Cafe Restaurant: We arrived to say we didn't have a table booked it was for next week not today. They did make room and so we could sit together. The waiter was not the friendliest and when a member of the group had a problem it was not dealt with in the right manner. My meal was great. read more.
