The place from Williamstown offers 112 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average A$36. What User likes about Al Porto Vecchio:

I eat at a lot of Melbourne city and inner West places. Typically a group of us look for Food around the $17 mark with cheap drinks. In our view this place is one of the best. Pastas are the pick of the menus and are absolutely fantastic for the price. Chicken pasta and Sicilian are great picks. Jug of Beer $13. You won't find pints anywhere that cheap. House wine cheap and drinkable. Interestingly mozzarella over th... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Al Porto Vecchio:

I was really looking forward to returning to this restaurant after 7 years and taking my husband. The hospitality used to be outstanding, friendly and warm and you always left with a full stomach and a big smile after a top evening!...It truly was fantastic to see our friends again and this really made the evening. The food was ok; cheap and cheerful - although we had one dish missing from the table and one member of... read more.
