Stopped at Fusion Cafe on our way back from Melbourne, 43 Celsius when we pulled up. We were greeted by a very engaging young lady, the menu was different and my meal Pulled Pork Salad was just the right meal such an extremely hot day....More read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Fuzion:

Breakfast here promised a lot but delivered little. The coffee was weak and milky and lacked proper crema, the breakfast meal was disappointing. I ordered the bruschetta with poached eggs and bacon which was supposed to have pesto on the sour dough bread and I struggled to find the thin smear under the thinly sliced tomatoes. This place seems to have potential was wasn't on its game the morning we visited. There were... read more. A visit to Fuzion is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. When you're not so ravenous, you can just treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
