We felt at home at the Belmont with friendly and enthusiastic young staff - Sophie and Matt were particularly good - and delicious meals. My lamb cutlets were presented in a sophisticated way, the vegetables fresh and tasty (loved the sprouts and the creamy base sauce) and Dan enjoyed his chicken burger. We loved the light dumplings with sweet sauce and cream that we shared for dessert. Some brighter lights at table... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Belmont Hotel Bendigo:

The Belmont needs to decide whether it's a pub or a restaurant. Food prices are a little high for the pub surrounds (can't describe it as decor because it isn't). Four of the meals for our table of six arrived together, then a ten minute wait for one more and a further long wait for the sixth. This meant most of us had finished eating before the last meal arrived. I might add that it was a slow night with only two or... read more. Are you looking for pudding? In Belmont Hotel Bendigo you will find divine desserts that will certainly satisfy your cravings, the guests love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Typically, the dishes are prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh.
