Typical rustic cafe with inside and outside seating and a small reasonably priced menu. Went for lunch, With coffee to drink I had the pumpkin gnocci while my companion had the special pear and rocket salad and we shared a bowl of fries. No complaints, the food and service were good and the fries excellent. Bendigo is blessed to have so many great cafes and this is one, I will have to try it out at breakfast next tim... What User doesn't like about The Subtle Eye:

Had a casual work lunch for two here today based on a recommendation. Not easy to find due to poor signage.

Modest menu. Tried the penne pasta with osso buco which was something different and tasted ok. Average value at $17. Cappuccino good. Service adequate. Lacked atmosphere for a lunch place. Would be better for breakfast? read more.
