What User likes about Catfish: We were in Ballarat for five days and our daughter had given us a heads up on this restaurant. We understand the chef had worked with David Thompson in London and if that was the case this place was odds on to be very good. It is a five star experience and we greatly enjoyed both the food and the service. Advice on food and wine proved to be spot on and the overall experience was well worth the relatively expensive p... What Karen R doesn't like about Catfish:

We've been here a few times over the past few years and it's always been great, but tonight it was very disappointing. The food was average at best and the service was clumsy and inattentive, even inappropriate at times. The wine list is extremely restricted and overpriced. We won't be back on a Thursday again, if at all. read more. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity.
