Due to a booking mix up at an unfriendly cafe nearby, we called in to check if our group of 12 could be accommodated. The staff were friendly & extremely helpful and went to the trouble of asking a couple of customers to relocate to another table so they could fit us in. Coffee was good. All our meals were good especially the corn cakes with lime avocado, bacon & a poached egg (although the egg was over cooked and no... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Cooper and Milla's:

I ordered a couple of sandwiches and they looked pretty good. Grain bread, plumped with protein and livened up with a lettuce leaf. They tasted pretty good also. But. $14 each. What a rip off. read more. A visit to Cooper and Milla's is particularly valuable due to the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties. Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, there are also delicious vegetarian menus on the menu.
