This has become my regular weekend coffee haunt. They are very friendly and my coffees have been great. There is a great playground for kids and it has a sheltered outdoor feel. Their food is very good, and occasionally they have special food nights. Tonight they had a Mexican food night which did not disappoint. They did have a glitch with their computer ordering system, which could happen anywhere. However their gr... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about Izba Espresso:

Sign out front states " come in for smiles" but haven't met one yet. As a visitor staying in the area I've visited regularly over the last month. I've found the staff unfriendly with poor customer service. The coffee is tasteless & weak, really just warm milk in a cup. The service is so slow I've been tempted to cancel my order. I used a coffee card and my order always included a baby chino (at an exorbitant $2) but... read more. For breakfast, you can
