Reccomend for breakfast, have had lunch meals but I think the breakfasts and coffee are what they excel at. Always packed but can't complain and worth it for the food read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Four Figs:

Dined in Saturday Night with family. The place was fully booked with a good atmosphere. Their menu leaves a lot to be desired. The guys Parmas looked good but the curry was really average and so was the duck for $33 with nothing on the plate. We have been here a couple of times but I advise you to check out the menu as it needs an update. Even the desserts sound sickly. The service was quite good but not outstanding.... read more. Various fine French courses are served in Four Figs from Beaconsfield Upper, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The guests also appreciate the versatile, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, whose traditional dishes are prepared with corn, beans and spicy chilies, In addition, the delectable desserts of the establishment shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests.
