I don't care if you bring your mum on the walker or your grandie in a pram or just your girlfriend.. This cafe has consistently good home made food, with a menu that appeals to all and changes with the produce available, a fridge full of cakes and generous serves.. good coffee well textured to boot.. great job guys.. I had the balsamic bruschetta.. yum read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Two Wrens:

This wayside café on the Surf Coast Highway was a good venue for meeting up with friends. There were 15 of us but there was still room for other patrons. It was warmed by a solid fuel fire which made it very pleasant considering the rain outside. The scones with jam and cream went down a treat. The sticky date pudding very nice. read more. The large range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Two Wrens even more worthwhile, In the morning they serve a tasty breakfast here. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
