This place is located in amongst a lot of eateries on the water. Lovely outlook over the water and the boats. The restaurant prepares seafood, mostly fish and chips but does do prawns and oysters. Fish and chips can come in 10 different types of fish cooked battered, crumbed and battered. Nothing unusual there. Plates come with chips and salad and are served on a huge plate. BYO with first choice across the road. They wi... read more. What User doesn't like about Samson Fish Seafood:

It was fairly busy but we ordered our dinner of fish and salad. We waited one and a half hours and when we asked about how much longer we needed to wait we were told another 10 or 15 minutes. At that point we said that we had waited long enough and asked for our money back at which point the Owner shouted some very obscene words at us. Would we give them a second chance, the answer is simply NO. read more.
