We couldn't overlook the 300 GM black Angus steak when we arrived at the railway restaurant. The dining room has sparkling chandeliers which are reflected in the large mirrors, the padded back, booths, or the clear, glass looking, plastic chairs. Wood panelling and newspapers to read while you wait for your meal, add to the ambience. Very clean too. Adjoining pool room with a large TV and one in the dining room too. T... read more.

What User doesn't like about Pine Creek Railway Resort Restaurant:

We rang to book for a three night powered caravan site yesterday. We were told, we don't take bookings, be here by lunchtime and you will have a site. Well ... arrived at 12 noon to be told no sites available because other people had phoned and booked them this morning! So much for not taking bookings, lost our business for ever.

The Lazy Lizard turned out to be heaps better anyway read more.
