We called in here for a snack this morning during a cycle ride- the cauliflower and leek pie was delicious- both filling and pastry-I'm inspired to try and make a similar one at home and I'm really not a pie person! Also tried a sausage roll which was excellent. The actual store is quaint and reminiscent of yesteryear. The cakes looked pretty delicious too. Only a short drive/cycle out of Daylesford it's definitely w... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Guildford General Store:

I love country towns and their quirky shops, but this one has missed the mark for me. I wouldn't say it's not worth stopping, maybe it is... it's certainly got potential. It looks neglected to me. It's dark inside and while it clearly had old world charm once... I would hazard a guess and say it's changed owners since then. I stopped to get a drink... initially wanted coffee but they don't do lactose free milk, so th... read more.
