Well what can I say about this little gem. The serving were good sizes and great taste, we were only staying in this area for one week but we went here twice in that week, there was three of us who all like our Chinese food and eat it regularly, every dish we had was wonderful and as I have already said were good serving. As for the staff the Son was the front man and doing a very good job at it making sure every was h... read more.
