We go to Stone Mill every few months and are never disappointed. They have a surprisingly extensive menu despite its small size and the food is always delicious and the servings generous. Rustic Italian at its best. The pasta is outstanding and the the meat and fish is normally very good. I often have the fish broth which is superb.

Service can be a little eccentric and the ambiance is average, but overall it is an en... read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside.
