Very nicely decorated restaurant depicting its origin. Although the restaurant was fully booked, the service was great with very warm friendly waiters. The food was great. Six of us went and all enjoyed our meals which was very tasty. We had entrees and main courses which were all delicious. If you hadn't tried Nepalese food it is similar to Indian food but perhaps not as hot but they can make it hotter if you wish. Ve... read more. What User doesn't like about Taste of the Himalayas:

The service was slow The food was way below average It was expensive There were dishes unavailable. Only told 1 hour after ordering Over all poor. The only thing that was good was the company of 6 of us. And the bill came to $389.00 meals were overpriced It was so under expected the meals. We didn't even take photos. Only thought of writing a review now read more.
