On this website, you can find the complete menu of Del Rios of Mount Anakie from Stony Creek. Currently, there are 22 courses and drinks available. del Rios is a family-owned vineyard, winery, and restaurant located on the slopes of an extinct volcano, Mt Anakie. Established in 1996, owner and winemaker Gus del Rio produces beautifully crafted wines that reflect the true varietal character of the region. The elegant and complex wines are complemented by a restaurant that offers a blend of traditional Spanish and contemporary cuisine, using local and estate-grown produce. The family's philosophy of great wine, food, and friends comes together in a wonderful setting with breathtaking views from the estate. Additionally, they have a paddock-to-plate approach, breeding their own free-range pasture-fed Black Angus Beef and Texel Friesian Cross Lambs to create premium products from start to finish.
