My husband and I have visited this restaurant several times and have really enjoyed our meals. All the usual favourites are represented in the menu, and they are done well, with a good balance of spices and generous servings. We enjoy the music videos playing on the screen as this is a midweek dinner option for us and we get a kick out of the Bollywood dance routines. The restaurant suffers from being slightly off th... The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. WLAN is available free of charge. What User

doesn't like about Spice of India Restaurant:

The service was slow, the entree that we had ordered as a main came out as an entree. The onion bhaji's were deep fried onion rings. All in all it was a very average experience with me feeling quite nauseous the following day. read more. A visit to Spice of India Restaurant becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, One also prepares menus finely and freshly with original Indian spices. If you'd like something after-dinner treat to finish off, Spice of India Restaurant does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, fine vegetarian dishes are also on the menu available.
