What User likes about Boathouse Daylesford: Thanks to Trip Advisor, when searching for the best café to have breakfast at in Daylesford, I ended up at Boathouse. The deck was gorgeous, albeit a bit chilly, and I had it all to myself to enjoy the quiet and the beautiful winter morning view. The service was friendly and very attentive, no sooner had I taken my last mouthful was my plate being swept away. I had the roasted mushrooms with provolone cheese, corn an... read more. What User doesn't like about Boathouse Daylesford:

Our food was very good. My steak was cooked beautifully. My sis's pasta was delicious although we would have expected more than just two prawns (even though they were large) for a seafood linguini and certainly did expect more pasta really needed to be twice the amount that was served. This was a set price for the lunch (or dinner) so I do not think you would get bigger meals for dinner. It was lacking in size. read more.
