Just been to Jumping Rock with my wife for a quick lunch while going home to Canberra. What can I say..... well the pie was delicious and flaky if crumb, the pastie was amazing with a great flavor and tender steak pieces. I have to the Canberra to Sydney trip at least twice a month and have stopped before at Heatherbrae's on the highway which I have to say serves terribly bad coffee and tasteless pies. I am now goin... read more. What User doesn't like about Jumping Rock Cafe:

It was packed with locals when we went on a crisp Saturday morning. Lots of breads, buns and croissant type items on offer for breakfast plus some hot food off the menu like bacon and egg rolls. The young guys serving seemed a bit overwhelmed and wouldn't add an egg to an order of smashed avo and toast - you get what you get. Kids had huge milkshakes and coffee was ok. Good for a simple breakfast but slightly cramped... read more.
