We stopped into the village of Bellingen on the way through to Dorrigo and looking for breakfast. We were lucky to stumble across The Purple Carrot. We sat outside in a sunny courtyard by the herb garden. The staff went out of their way to help, served delicious food to big city standards and even packed us lunch to go. read more.

When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Purple Carrot:

Our family went for breakfast. The food we had was nice as was the coffee. Well presented and average price. We organised our own menus and ordered and paid inside. Other tables had full table service and it was clear the patrons and staff were friends as their service was quick and friendly. We were definitely the odd ones out and made to feel that way. There are so many places to choose from that have equal quality... read more.
