Enjoyed a relaxing weekend at the Esk Caravan Park and wandered down the street for a light lunch. We decided to try the Red Deer Cafe and we're pleasantly surprised by the lovely fresh food and large menu. Service was very friendly, the cafe nicely decorated with a variety of local arts & crafts for sale and our meal was prepared in good time. Plenty of convenient parking out front and a short stroll to nearby accommod... read more. What User doesn't like about Red Deer Cafe:

Called into the Red Deer Cafe for a quick lunch after a long Easter weekend away. Lots of choices on the menu, probably too many which results in the food being just OK with no real stand outs. Red Deer's plus is it is always open and pretty convenient but don't expect too much in terms of really good food. It's a typical road house/takeaway cafe with OK food and service. So if your in a hurry, hungry and looking for... read more.
