Stopped here on the way back to Perth on the off chance and glad we did. The service was first class and the food was delicious freshly cooked fish and chips with perfect mushy peas. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Pickled Herring:

I wanted to book for lunch for six my husband's birthday. In approaching the staff member wiping the tables, he said to be quick, as he had things to attend to. I very briefly stated the purpose for my enquiry, and he said 'don't take bookings'. With that, we wouldn't have made one, even if we could. Went to the Tavern instead, and enjoyed our meal.
