We dined at this restaurant after seeing favourable reviews on TA, and it didn't disappoint. Friendly waiting staff and delicious food, good size portions, well priced enjoyed in a relaxed atmosphere made for a lovely evening.

We did book, and noted the restaurant had a steady flow of patrons along with people collecting takeaway. Highly recommend this restaurant in Hahndorf. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Nepalese Temptations:

The service in this restaurant is very polite and friendly. Complimentary pappadums were brought whilst we browsed the menu which was a good start. When we came to order, not all the dishes were available which was disappointing but what we had was good ...not outstanding and not very spicy either. My main gripe was the toilet which was the public toilet outside didn't even have loo roll or hand towels disgusting. read more. With the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Nepalese Temptations becomes even more attractive, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked fresh in a traditional manner. Ultimately, the environment also plays a role: The bistro can create the right homely atmosphere with its picturesque small size here, there are also delectable vegetarian recipes in the menu.
