New owners Josie and Tony have done a magnificent job of bringing the pub back to glorious condition, on top of that actual chef Tony has created an amazing menu. We were there 30th April 2017, I know chips aren't a guide but they were in my top 5 of all places and time. One of us had an amazing vegan ratatouille and I had an amazing beef Guinness pie and all the other meals were fantastic too! I must get back there... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Aldgate Pump Hotel: We ate here Sunday evening. OK it was a busy time and the food was delivered promptly despite that, but it was simply just ordinary food, nothing to write home about. But the price was reasonable. The wine we wanted was not available by the glass despite being listed on the menu by the glass, so we had to settle for another. The mark of a good bistro is for staff to offer water at the table or have it available on the... read more.
