A footpath table to view the town gardens or cool down on a hot Queensland in the relaxing restaurant. If street parking is full drive into the adjacent Woolworths car park. We had a wonderful morning stop with teas and coffee and of-course gave in for a treat. Very welcoming staff with lots of local knowledge. May come back for their special of eat in or take away fish and chips as an inexpensive lunch. Also offer a... read more. What User

doesn't like about Hideaway Restaurant:

Pretty average decor and food, poor service. Ordered the rump steak, when it came out, that's all it was, just a steak on a plate! "Any vegetables or salad come with that?" "Nuh." She turned around and walked away. No mention of that when ordering or on the menu! Went there once, never been back. read more.
