We stopped past for lunch and had a doorstep style open sandwich. The service was lovely and the lady advised that they might take a while due to how they are made. This was much appreciated. They all came out together and were tasty. We then ordered milkshakes which came in mason jars and were well enjoyed. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Cafe

Moonta:

the quiche and the salad ordered from the special board. the disc of the quiche was heated in the microwave and was awfully soggy and water logged. the service was at best bad, the only words that were spoken to me were the $total of order and. the names of the courts when they were brought to the table.
