What User likes about Glen Clyde House: The day had turned windy and chilly, snow was falling on the mountains so the Glen Clyde was a welcome find for two weary wanderers. The Devonshire tea sign lead us into an attractively appointed log-fire warmed cafe. The locally produced scones were generous, with yummy jam. A gift shop next door featured tasteful locally produced glassware and pottery. Definitely a lovely spot to stop. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Glen Clyde House: Had lunch which was disappointing. Service not over friendly. Ordered beef and guinness pie. The filling was nice but the puff lid was cold and tasted stale. Salad ok but brought us vegetables at first when we had ordered salad. Would not return. read more.
