Service was great, many food options. We had cake and coffee which were locally baked delights and absolutely delicious especially when combined with good coffee. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations.

What User doesn't like about Joan's Pantry:

I ordered a large Latte in a mug and raisin toast. For $7 the raisin toast was a rip off, as was two very small stale slices of thin fruit toast. To make matters worse the coffee mug was also small and equivalent to a normal cup size in other cafes. A complete waste of $11.20 read more. Joan's Pantry from HAWTHORNDENE is a cozy café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a hot coffee or a hot chocolate, One can also find some international meals to choose from on the menu. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
