Situated on the main road this is obviously very popular with locals. Plenty of friendly staff and quick service - as well as lovely hot soup on a chilly day, made this a great experience. I even had them make their first piccolo coffee. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about McCue's Bakery:

Visiting this country town after many years the local council has done a fantastic job greening many parts to rejuvenate the appearance of the town. Unfortunately we must have had a bad day at the bakery (mid-afternoon) the pie just warm (had to ask...for cutlery), the apricot pie seemingly hiding for too many days in storage (casing crumbling and apricot dried out) but for a normal size cup coffee really!!!!
