What User likes about Saligao Stories: The restaurant is located in a Bye-Lane in Saligao, but as soon as you are there, it is an amazing 100-year-old villa and the owner cum cook, Anisha Hassan personally monitors the kitchen and is a gracious host...and it shows in the quality of the food that is absolutely amazing. While you have a selection of Goan, Portugiesen and Hyderabadi cuisine, I would recommend you try their Hyderabadi cuisine called The Hyder... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Saligao Stories: The Hyderabad thali had very good mirchi ka salan and aubergine curry. The double ka meetha was good. However surprisingly the biryani was very hard and probably old! My chicken dish was good but not exceptional. On the whole a bit of a let down. read more. If you want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Saligao Stories from Queula is a good bar, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
