Its a store, a cafe, a bank, and a post office with a great range of local food and wine. Its not glammed up, it looks like it did 50 years ago. Staff are friendly and efficient and its a great place for a break if you're driving in the Surf Coast hinterland, or on the inland road to Lorne. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Moriac Store:

You can easily drive past Moriac Store. However if you stop and go in, you will find hot coffee, tasty pastries, take away food, sit down meals as well as wines and groceries. There is also a Post Office and shop selling knick knacks and craft. The place is always busy and many local workers seem to get their lunch and eat in the park opposite. Worth stopping.
