What User likes about Casa Marikit: It may be pricey to some but food is good for sharing. They are generous in walnuts. Our salad has a lot of it and even the panna cotta. Give them time to cook and it will surely make your tummy happy. Better to call them ahead and reserve a table, place is quite small. Parking of Casa Marikit is small and only along the hi-way (SUV's will not fit unless parked parallel) but they allow guests to park beside their co-... read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Casa Marikit: Beautiful place and delicious food. However, the team who handles reservations are quite inefficient. I made a reservation a day before we were to dine and specifically mentioned that we wanted to eat al fresco. They happily took note of this Upon arriving there, we found out they had given our table to someone else! The hosts were also unaware that we had a reservation and were quite confused The signal was also qui... read more. If you crave for sweets, Casa Marikit with its magical desserts can surely make an end of it, The customers of the establishment also appreciate the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. Of course, there's also tasty pizza, baked straight from the oven according to traditional recipes, and you can look forward to the delicious classic seafood cuisine.
