What User likes about Balay Sa Bikol: Just came home from Balay sa Bicol. Mango Crepe was amazing! Pesto Pasta was great too. They have very impressive well-maintained vintage furniture and items which fit perfectly into the traditional Filipino house. We had a free tour of the house by the lady who happened to be the niece of the owner of the house. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Balay Sa Bikol: it was hot and damp and too dark, especially in the first stage, eating is average, place looked better when the previous owners own and has worsened since then. read more. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity.
