compared to the pre-covid standard, which was excellent, the service was amateurish. it took three steps to determine which aromen of gelato were not available. the risottos were as good as ever, the ravioli was a bit hard. when we ordered panacottas, the kitchen was honest enough to say that it was not worth eating. at this point we ran out of time and left. After the high standards we will be looking for other plac... read more.
