It was ok. I went in with a ramen craving, saw a soba dish (no more ramen being served here).. the dish wasn't bad, I liked it, but like the previous reviewer mentioned, I did expect a bit more for the price. Maybe if I tried some of the other dishes as well.. but that's how real life pachinko works.. hit and miss, so I decided against it. YMMV. read more. In the Pachinko from Launceston, a lot of emphasis is placed on the preparation of easy-to-digest, flavorful Japanese menus with fresh vegetables, fish and meat, The customers of the establishment also consider the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Pachinko. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, For a snack in between, the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads, and other snacks are suitable.
