The Card of Blue Fish from Sydney includes about 132 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$33. What Winfield Rodriguez likes about Blue Fish:

Had a family dinner here for my Ma's birthday. The service was great and the seafood was some of the best that I've had in Sydney. We ordered the Family Platter ($200) and it was just enough for the five of us. It comes with a huge range of hot/cold, grilled/battered seafood, all of it some of the best quality I've eaten. The location is beautiful, right on Darling Harbour with plenty of outdoor dining if you're ther... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What

Heath Bergstrom doesn't like about Blue Fish:

The visited for dinner - sat outside as sufficient heating. For each table, ceilings were also provided, which was a nice grade. The food was quite average - scallops were Meh and the bucket of the ordered shrimp were pretty tasteless, the sauce served with them. The service was overly attentive - we had reviewed another person every 5 minutes. I did not hate it, but I would not return. read more. Various tasty seafood courses are provided by the Blue Fish from Sydney, there are also tasty vegetarian menus on the menu. Also worth mentioning at this place are the dishes from Australia, Forbreakfast a delicious brunch is offered here.
