Kobe Teppanyaki is a little bit of Japan in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne. My beautiful partner and I enjoyed a lovely evening meal here and were both impressed with the atmosphere, decor, service and of course, the food. We both had the Kaisen Set menu, which is seafood based and a delight from start to finish. Sitting there watching the energetic and skillful chef ply his trade was both, exciting and entertaining and... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Kobe Teppanyaki Japanese Restaurant:

I've eaten at Kobe many times over the years and posted a review a year ago where I said that "I don't think we've ever had a disappointing meal. It's always well presented, fresh, and tasty, however, getting a tiny bit pricey, However, the service isn't always consistent". Having recently dined there again, I still stand by that. The food is very good. But the service continues to be inconsistent. We found the meals... read more. Kobe Teppanyaki Japanese Restaurant from Doncaster East is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to hang out with friends, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian meals. In addition, they serve you tasty seafood meals, and easily digestible Japanese dishes are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat.
