Dined twice at wonderbowl at a recent stay here in town. Managed to try a few dishes and I found that food is generally pretty good. It was 100% authentic Japanese, the flavours were exactly the same. Tuna nigiri and assorted sushi platter was very nice. No complaints at all and I happily gobbled down the whole lot. This Japanese restaurant is really good. The atmosphere has good vibes. Recommended for everyone who w... read more. What Lee Bee doesn't like about Wonder Bowl Kitchen Langford:

This was my second time trying Wonderbowl Kitchen ramen. My first time when the shop first opened, the soup was cloudy, dark and very salty, not nice. This time I really felt like a big bowl of soup so tried again, ordered chicken mushroom ramen. Upon arriving home I opened the bag to see my soup was 2cm of broth. You have got to be joking, not even enough to moisten the noodles, hardly a soup. (It did not spill, it... read more. For you, Wonder Bowl Kitchen Langford from Perth prepares scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), in many other versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, the brilliantly inventive fusion of various ingredients guarantees visitors an unforgettable taste experience of this expertly prepared fusion cuisine.
