What User likes about The Green Room: I was here a few times, and always love it. everything I tried is delicious. at my last visit I found that the early roll was overcooked and extremely oily were almost dripping with oil, but they are usually not so. I also ordered a green curry filled with vegetables. the portion sizes are quite generous. I have a rather big appetit, but could not finish everything, so I left over and could have a full second meal. t... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about The Green Room:

The service was really slow: out of my party of seven, everyone had basically finished eating before I received my order of pumpkin moon cake NT 160 for four pieces and pad thai NT 220 . I also thought it was quite pricey for what I got, partially from the relatively small portion size and partially from this nagging feeling that the flavor profiles were missing a key element. Good thing I didn't have to pay NT 130 f... read more. The Green Room from Alley prepares delicious dishes, refined with the popular spices and (fish-)sauces of the Thai cuisine, along with plenty of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. If you'd like something sweet for dessert, The Green Room does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, The inventive fusion of different meals with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the customers - a good example of Asian Fusion.
