There are so many Vietnamese and Asian restaurants around this area and this makes it so hard to choose a good one. Thien An is in a central position, opposite the railway station. It presents as a modest and clean restaurant but the food and service are honest and well priced. The pho was filling and full of traditional flavour and at $10 very good value. The bbq pork rice paper rolls were divine. There are better V... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Thien An:

Food was excessively salty and filet beef dish, as recommended by waitress, was inedible. When it was suggested they remove the cost of the rubber beef dish from the bill, gave us half price?? For something that we couldn't and didn't eat? Wow, its not like there are 30 other Vietnamese restaurants around the corner. We live close by and we are never going back. read more. At Thien An in Melbourne, juicy meat is freshly prepared on an open flame and garnished with tasty sides, Many guests are particularly impressed by the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine. The meals are prepared according to authentic Asian style, In addition, numerous guests look forward to enjoying traditional Vietnamese menus with the perfect hint of Southeast Asian flavor during a stop at the Thien An.
