On the strong advice of the hotel receptionist, my wife and I visited this little and unassuming restaurant 3 times during a brief stay in Darwin in May for a meal with wine. We're vegetarians. Everything was outstanding read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Kevin Walsh doesn't like about PM Eat & Drink:

Very noisy, tables too close together and no ambience in the restaurant. We tried 6 different dishes and food was simply awful. Strange and broad mix of flavours, with no soul or character in any one dish. It felt like they are trying too hard to prove something in their dishes and failing abysmally on all levels. Happy to pay for a good meal, but the food was awful and an embarrassment to Darwin. Will never return. read more. At PM Eat & Drink in DARWIN CITY, tasty Australian menus are freshly prepared for you with a lot of affection and the authentic products such as bush tomatoes and caviar limes, there are also delicious vegetarian menus in the menu. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for all tastes.
