The chook shed has the best chips around. Crispy on the outside and soft on the inside. The chicken is just average roast chicken but paired with gravy, chips or salad it's alright. They do coffee and sometimes have special lunch options like pasta or chicken wings. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Chook Shed:

had grilled fish chips and a pork bone from the virgin to lunch during the week. I couldn't see why they have all the good reviews. chips were soggy. a little fish was very nice, but the other was almost gone. the counter didn't know what to calculate for the pig and said no cost, but calculated $3.00 some wise. not for me and will not return.
