I stole my friends around the island for a day trip and randomly found this beach side café (we were lost). I honestly recommend! They were very busy from the time we went there, but the workers welcomed and sat us quickly. I wouldn't complain that they didn't do table service read more. What Tate Littell doesn't like about Charlie Farley's:

This is a welcoming spot where the staff were clearly prepared for alterations to the menu to cater to vegans. We enjoyed eating our felaful burgers on the porch, overlooking the beach, rugged up in the blankets provided. The burgers were good. The patty was a bit soft/fragile, but flavoursome and not oily. They came with a good serve of thick-cut chips. There are only two restaurants on this part of the island. The... read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Charlie Farley's even more worthwhile. Of course, you also have to try the fine burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered.
