Two hour 3 course dinner was nice but not up to the online reviews. Course missed, slow service and underwhelming courses. The meat courses was good and the fish v good but sauces under par. Wine and drinks options good. read more. Tayim from The Rocks (NSW) is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, The customers also rave about the scrumptious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
