I went there two times, the first one that we shared almost all the main parts and each individual dish was delicious, but especially the Indonesian was a joy at the sea. the mold cakes were also super good. we also loved how friendly the personal was and how beautifully decorated it is, its a place where they feel comfortable and comfortable, which is not so common in hongkong read more. What Tyrique Pfeffer doesn't like about it was quite difficult to find this place as the restaurant is located on a floor in a large building. they have to take the up, once on the right, they immediately enter the restaurant. felt like back to the 20th century with the retro interior. you could see that they are oriented towards this place. many options. eating is okay, but it doesn't matter. we have a suppe of the house as an appetizer, we did not finish...

Veggie4love:
