In Indonesia, a warung is a small restaurant serving traditional Indonesian dishes. Pondok Rempah has been open around four years, it's a busy little place. I had bakso sapi, which is beef meatballs with noodles in soup. It was very tasty. I had some chilli...sauce on the side. I also had an iced coffee, which was very pleasant. It looks to be popular with overseas visitors. It has a contactless menu. Pondok Rempah i... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Yadira Mills doesn't like about Pondok Rempah:

Our last visit to these restaurant is around 2 years ago. In hope they will get better food. But its still the same. We order Lontong Capgomeh Lontong sayur. The taste is so bad, very spicy, and we dont know what type of soup...is that ? I think this is our last visit to these place. read more.
