The friendly manager Ken is always there making sure everything is happening. Certainly you can find a suburban Chinese restaurant of dubious fatty taste and quality that is cheaper,. But here the high quality fresh ingredients and choice ensures that you keep coming back. I like the generous meal portions. But aside from the Chan soi bow (stuffed lettuce appetiser) I would stick to the mains. The fish is still swimmi... read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Ripples Seafood & BBQ Restaurant:

What use to be a shining light of the area for fine dining Chinese , Ripples had fallen form its illustrious heights. I tolerated the gradual decline in quality of food until my partner and I got sick from what was a fav dish BBQ duck in plum sauce. Never again read more.
