What John Hairizan likes about Hui Yuan:

when we came there all the locals took food from the buffet so we were doing the same. it was a bit hard to find out what everything is and their english was not the best but they told me all was without animal products and it looked like that. i was just confused. it was a kind of funny there. the food was very tasty and i loved that so many different locals were eating there. This place has nothing more to offer that the other veg restaurants in town but is still good. They have a buffet as well as a à la carte menu. Everything is very cheap though! read more. At Hui Yuan in Malacca you can enjoy delicious vegetarian menus, that are free from any animal meat or fish, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Customers particularly appreciate the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine.
