I particularly like their hazelnut drizzle cake and their red velvet cakes. They have a huge selection of other pastries and snacks too. There is a small place upstairs to sit and they also serve some nice coffee too! read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about

Patisserie Victoria:

Good cozy place but over hyped. Well in better word driver all the way from Carmona to visit this place in search of a good bakery was not fully ended. Though the baker like - Pastries, cakes and the cup cake & coffee all were upto the mark only but you can't rate them as excellent. So in short a good place but with ordinary stuff. read more. At Patisserie Victoria in Madgaon, a hearty brunch is served for breakfast, where you can have your fill feast, look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. Furthermore, there are many typically British dishes on the card that make the English heart beat faster, Menus are also prepared here, deliciously and freshly with original Indian spices.
